

November 30, 2012

News Release

For Immediate Release

Frisco Highline Trail Volunteer Work Day

Volunteers are invited to help Ozark Greenways and the Polk County Bike Club spruce up the Frisco Highline Trail in Polk County this Saturday, Dec. 1, 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Volunteers will be working on repairing some ditches and washed-out areas by the Hickory Point Bridge near mile marker 30, as well as clearing brush and limbs along the trail.

Volunteers should bring drinking water, snacks and work gloves, and, if possible, picks, wheelbarrows, chainsaws, heavy rakes, limb loppers, pruners, shovels. No RSVP needed.

Directions:

Meet at 8:30 a.m., at St. Wenceslaus Cemetery on U Highway, approximately 1.5 miles west of 13 Highway near mile marker 31 as it is listing on the Frisco Highline Trail map. This is where U Highway intersects with the Frisco Highline Trail south of Bolivar, an area historically known as Karlin.

View or download a map of the Frisco Highline Trail (pdf).

For more information, contact: Frank Zanaboni, Polk County Bike Club, 417-849-3723, frankzdesign@gmail.com
www.ozarkgreenways.org / www.polkcountybikeclub.org